New melody, existing text

Text with alternate hymn tune

No Preference, Composer's Discretion

Mary asks that you plan one calendar year ahead of scheduled premiere date at which time you may submit thematic concept, hymn text and suggested scriptures.

Please note: All scripture and texts subject to composer discretion due to the composer's prior works, copyright issues or musical incompatibility.

An unpublished PDF will be delivered to the contact no later than four rehearsals prior to the premiere.

Submissions for publication will be made at the discretion of the composer. In the event of publication, the commissioning organization agrees to purchase the music and safely discard all manuscript copies.

Additional Instrumentation: Any additional instrumentation requested will be out-sourced to a third party. A fee will be negotiated, approved, and paid by the commissioning body directly to the arranger.

Cancellation Fees:

Understandably sometimes issues arise that necessitate cancellations.

Cancellation prior to 3 months: The deposit will be retained for compensation.

Cancellation fees based on the amount of work completed are as follows:

Cancellation within 30 days: Fifty percent (50%) of the final fee is due if for any reason the job is canceled before the final stage. One hundred percent (100%) of the total fee is due despite cancellation if the anthem has been completed.
